

KSA Training Services

Our service mission is to provide contemporary education and training suitable for our emergent new society--more complex, less conforming and full of diversity.

Staff

If you are looking for innovative ways to educate your diverse staff and parents, contact us.

Parents

Changing paradigms requires new thinking, away with traditional approaches that are now ineffective amidst great diversity and frequent flux.

Children

Counselors, educators or trainers with passion and desire for educating in emergence join our team.

KSA Presentations and Training Workshops

- Child Abuse & Neglect Training in Emergence
- Disaster Recovery Training for Educators and Caregivers
- Diversity Oriented Management Effectiveness
- Emergency Preparedness
- Family Violence
- First Aid/CPR Training
- Parenting and Disciplining in Emergence
- Using Diversity to Manage Conflict

The breakthrough for a harmonious future depends on building new systems that are more suitable to our new complex world. This requires us to acknowledge the obsolescence of our current systems steeped in traditional and top-down approaches.

Pricing:

1 Hour presentation:	$ 995.00
2 ½ Training Workshop:	$1,495.00
2 ½ Hour Training Workshop and DOME Assessment:	$2,500.00

Prices exclude transportation, accommodation and hospitality expenses. All fees are prevailing but subject to change, based on contract, location and incentives.

Call 1800-524-1156 for more information.

Chief Trainer / Presenter

Dr. Peter D. Osilaja has published, produced and trained on Health and Safety for 20 years. His Doctorate dissertation is on Crisis Management in Emergence. He is the founder and president of KidSafety of America. He is the proprietor of the DOME concept, Diversity Oriented Management Effectiveness.

